IS HIT BY TRAIN AND STILL LIVES

Will McManus Knocked From Track
Sunday Night by C. H. & D.
Freight.

SUFFERS PAINFUL INJURIES

Freight Going Slow, Preparing to Take Water at Tank—Engineer Hears Cry.

While sitting on the C. H. & D. railroad, near the I. & C. power house last night about nine o'clock, Will McManus, a farmer living near Gings, was struck by a slow-going east-bound freight train and miraculously escaped a horrible death. Had the train been going the usual rate, he, no doubt, would have been killed instantly or fatally injured, but the engineer had slowed down the train to take water at the watering station, which was not far distant from the place where he was struck.

McManus was not himself and, as he sat there on the railroad track, he did not hear the approach of the train. It slipped up on him, striking him just above the right hip and in the small of the back, just over the kidneys. He is badly bruised on the hip and the physicians are unable to determine whether he has any broken ribs as his flesh is so sore that they could not examine him thoroughly. He also suffered a bad flesh wound on the left temple, where his head struck the ground, when he was thrown by the train.

McManus had been in Indianapolis all day and returning home in the evening he went to the C. H. & D. station to inquire if the train had gone to Gings. When he was informed that it had gone he started east, out the railroad, and evidently had become fatigued when he reached the power house and had sat down on the track.

When the train struck him, the engineer heard his cry and immediately went back to the spot and there found him prostrate on the ground. They loaded him on a flat car and brought him back to the station where a physician was summoned and examined him. Dr. C. H. Parsons and Dr. D. D. VanOsdol waited on the injured man.

FIRST MEETING OF THE YOUNG BLOODS

Commercial Youths of Action, Who Intend to do Things, Meet Tonight.

A GOOD ATTENDANCE DESIRED

The Young Men's Industrial club will hold its first meeting in the court house assembly room tonight at 7:30 o'clock. A big attendance is urged so that the organization may be started off with a rush and a dash that its success may be assured. Already a large number of signers have been obtained and it is hoped that everyone will turn out who promised to support the organization. A number of good speakers have been secured to make addresses and much good is expected to result from the gathering.

SISTERS CRITICALLY ILL.

Mrs. E. B. Poundstone and Miss Anna Holiday, sisters, who live in North Harrison street, are both critically ill and not expected to live.

WILL GIVE A RECITAL

Miss Nannie K. Leggitt in Entertainment Tuesday Evening.

Miss Nannie K. Leggitt, a recent graduate of the Morristown, Tenn., Normal and Industrial school, will give a recital Tuesday evening in the Second M. E. church, assisted by the choir of the church for the benefit of benevolences. After the recital a social will be held.

DAILY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE TENT

Will be Found on the Chautauqua Grounds This Year—Business
to be Transacted There.

TELEPHONE BE FOUND THERE

The Daily Republican will have a tent on the Chautauqua grounds this year which will be known as the administration "building." It will be a large affair, which will hold several people at a time and in which business may be transacted. The Republican has obtained the tent for this purpose and anyone may feel free to use it. The only telephone on the ground will be placed there so that most of the business of the Chautauqua will be transacted from that point. A writing table and stationery will be found in the tent which anyone may have access to for the mere asking. It was received with Mr. Redman's shipment of tents today.

SEATING CAPACITY OF SIX THOUSAND

Chautauqua Tent This Year Will be the Largest Ever Used—Other Tents Shipped.

WILL BE USED BY CAMPERS

Will M. Redman received a carload of tents this morning to be used during the Chautauqua by those who wish to camp on the grounds during the meeting. The shipment includes the big Chautauqua tent, which is eighty by one hundred and forty feet. This is much larger than the tent last year, it being only eighty by ninety feet. The management is expecting much larger crowds this year and for this reason have obtained the large tent, which has a seating capacity of six thousand people. Mr. Redman will have the tents for rent to anyone who wishes to camp on the Chautauqua grounds.

HOMER BEATS RUSHVILLE

Interesting Game Was Played on Homer Grounds Sunday.

Rushville and Homer played an exciting eleven inning ball game at Homer Sunday, resulting in a victory for the Homer boys by a score of 11 to 10. The feature of the game was Gue Wiler's running.

BLUFF DIDN'T GO WITH PRICE

Big Four Conductor Tried to Eject
City Marshal From Passenger Train.

MISTAKE OF A TRAINMAN

Took Ticket and Gave Hat Check Receipt—Train Was Delayed
Over Thirty Minutes.

City Marshal Price had an aggravating experience on a Big Four train at Shirley Sunday. He was returning from a week's vacation on the lakes and when he reached Anderson he was obliged to change trains. Instead of properly returning his ticket the conductor on the first train gave him a receipt for his ticket which was taken up when he went in his sleeper for the night. This the conductor on the second train rejected and insisted on putting the officer off the train. Mr. Price stood pat and having the prowess and the physique to back up his position, and knowing he was right in the matter, refused to get off the train. The crew made all sorts of threats, but it went over Mr. Price's head. The town marshal of Shirley was summoned and asked "in the name of the law" to put the obstinate (?) passenger on terra firma, but when he caught a glance of the man and saw determination written in such a plain, bold hand on his face, he backed away. After a delay of thirty minutes the train was started on its way—and Mr. Price sat complacently in a cushioned seat, looking out the window and picking the crackerjack out of his teeth with a whisp broom straw.

ENOS GREELEY IN ACCIDENT

Bone in Foot Broken and His Ankle is Sprained.

Enos Greeley is suffering from his second painful accident within a year. Now he has a broken bone in his foot and a badly sprained ankle, the result of an accident at Richmond. While walking on the sidewalk his ankle turned, but he was able to walk to the train and come to his home in this city. After he reached here the foot hurt him more and he called Dr. VanOsdol. Mr. Greeley lost a hand in an accident in a planing mill last fall.

SAVED COMPANION FROM DROWNING

Paul Norris Rescued Boy Friend in the Deep Waters of Blue River.

GOING DOWN THE SECOND TIME

While in swimming near Carthage Friday evening, Paul Norris, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Norris, saved a boy friend from drowning. They were in Blue river, near the Norris farm, south of Carthage, when the young friend of Norris went down. He was going down the second time when young Norris reached his side and carried him safely to the shore.

A dental college has recently been added to the University of Madrid.

LOOK AHEAD TO BIG AUDITORIUM

Union Meeting Will Probably be Held Next Fall by Prominent Evangelist.

WHEN FUNDS WILL BE RAISED

To Erect Large Structure For Public Gatherings—Permanent Chautauqua Assured.

With the erection of a building in the city park an annual chautauqua would be assured for Rushville and would be a permanent affair. Indications now point to the fact that a structure will be built next fall for this purpose and may be used not only for a chautauqua but for all public gatherings.

The ministers of the city are negotiating with a prominent evangelist to come here next fall and hold a union meeting and thus raise enough money to build a large tabernacle in the city park. All that would be necessary would be the guarantee of the money to erect the structure and it would be built before the union meetings are held. And then during the progress of the meeting the evangelist guarantees to raise the desired amount of money.

No definite arrangements have been made, but a large correspondence has been carried on with a prominent evangelist and he can probably be persuaded to come. It is not thought best to make his name public at present as no definite contract has been signed. It can be assured that he is one of the best in the country and is second to none only Billy Sunday, who is acknowledged to be the greatest ever in America. As soon as all of the ministers return from their summer vacations they intend to get together and push the union meeting through to success.

It is next to impossible to estimate the benefits derived from a building where all public gatherings could be held. The Chautauqua could be held there; all county and city political conventions, State meetings of various organizations, and Rush county might even be able to draw a Sixth district convention here with the proper place to handle crowds and hold the meeting. All of this would serve to advertise Rushville and would help to make the city grow. The tabernacle boom is on and will in all probability be a reality next fall.

THEO RAMEY TOOK A COURSE BY MAIL

Diligently Studied the Highways and Byways of Old Boston
Town.

GOES TO CONVENTION THERE

Theophilis Ramey left for Boston, Mass., today, where he goes as a delegate to the Colored Epworth League national convention. His friends here declare they feel proud in sending such a capable representative and expect him to be heard from in the convention. Theo. took a course of study by mail before he left, of the intricate streets and avenues of the Hob City.

—Miss Ruth Ashworth of Connersville spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Hazel Stech in North Jackson street.

PRIZE WINNING JERSEYS

John Boyd Will Ship His Herd to Lexington This Week.

John Boyd, owner of Riverside farm and one of the finest Jersey cow herds in the United States, will leave Thursday for Lexington, Ky., where he will enter the first exhibit of the season. Last year he cleaned nearly everything on the boards with his prize winning herd.

THOUGHT RAT WAS RABBIT--IS BITTEN

Greeley Mauzy Has Symptoms of Blood Poisoning as Result of Picking up Rodent.

INTENSE PAIN IN HIS HAND

As a result of taking a rat for a young rabbit, Greeley Mauzy is confined to his home in North Main street, with a sore hand that has every symptom of being a severe case of blood poisoning. He was out in the wheat field July 15, and seeing what he thought was a young rabbit, picked it up. The supposed rabbit proved to be a large rat. It bit him on the right hand, which is now swollen and from which he is suffering intense pain. The attending physician can only wait for developments as nothing certain can be determined as to what might result.

DR. TEVIS SPOKE AT UNION MEETING

Large Crowd Out Last Night at the Missionary Baptist Church to Hear Popular Pastor.

HANDLED A WEIGHTY SUBJECT

Union services were held at the Missionary Baptist church last night and the edifice was filled to overflowing. Dr. V. W. Tevis, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church delivered the sermon and it was a masterly effort. Dr. Tevis spoke on "Our Knowledge of Immortality." Rev. Myers, the pastor of the church, assisted by a traveling evangelist, sang a duet.

SAYS HOWARD PEA SHOT HER CHICKENS

Miss Alma Hilligoss Also Declares
he Took Them Home and he is Arrested.

Howard Pea was arrested by Sheriff Will King Saturday evening on the charge of stealing chickens and is now out, having given bond in the circuit court for $100. Young Pea was out with a gun one week ago yesterday hunting. While on the farm of Miss Alma Hilligoss he shot and killed several chickens, according to the affidavit, and took them home with him. Miss Hilligoss says she heard the shots and called to him but he ran. She filed an affidavit against him and the case will come up in court in September.

WEDDING BELLS WERE NOT HEARD

When Minor Bell and Bessie Nelson Stole a March on Their Many Friends.

WERE WED TWO YEARS AGO

Secretly Married by Rev. Cates at Connersville—Will Live at the Bell Home.

The relatives and friends of Mr. J. Minor Bell and Miss Bessie I. Nelson were greatly surprised when the rumor that the principals had been married for almost two years, reached their ears.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell were secretly married November 23, 1907, by Rev. Preston Cates at Connersville, Ind. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Nelson, who live north of Gings. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell, also residing near Gings. Mr. and Mrs. Bell are prominent young people of Union township and they have the good wishes of their many friends.

They will be at home to their friends at the home of Mr. Bell's parents for the present.

SHE FELL AND BROKE A RIB

But Did Not Know it For Several Days Afterwards.

Miss Mollie Pulliam of West Third street was washing windows a few days ago and fell sustaining what she thought at the time but painful bruises. It developed yesterday that she had broken a rib.

COMMISSIONERS AT COUNTY POOR FARM

Allow Several Claims and Examine Treasurer's Report at Regular Monthly Meeting.

PURDUE SCHOLARSHIP CHANGE

The county commissioners held their monthly meeting in the court house today. They allowed several claims and examined the reports of the treasurers of the Carthage and Rushville school boards. They made a trip to the poor farm this afternoon to examine the conditions there. Amos Baxter, who was recently awarded a scholarship to Purdue by the commissioners could not accept and the same scholarship was given to Chase Smelser of near New Salem today. Smelser was a student in Purdue last year.

THIS SOUNDS GOOD.

Shelbyville Democrat: David Weidner, one of the prominent and progressive young farmers of Rush county, who lives close to the Shelby county line, paid this office a welcome call Saturday. Dave had a forty-eight acre field that averaged twenty-two bushels of wheat to the acre.

NOAH MARKER COMPLACENT

Alleged Bank Wrecker Says He Will Rest Up.

NEIGHBORS ARE GOOD TO HIM

The Flattering Manner in Which the Friends of Former Assistant Teller of the Shirk Bank at Tipton Fixed His Bond Has Given Him a Very Complacent View of the Situation—Many Believe That He Did Not Leave the County, and Want to Hear From Missouri.

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 2.—Noah R. Marker says that he has made no plans as to the future, and is going to rest. He is much pleased over the confidence expressed in him and asserted that he would show to his friends that it would not be misplaced.

It was learned that Mr. Marker and his family are preparing to leave in a day or two for Toledo, O., where they will visit the family of Charles C. Taylor, a former resident of this city, for an indefinite time. Marker is anxious to get away from the eyes of the curious, although he has been subjected to few questions from his neighbors since his return.

Marker's return to Tipton was in the same manner as his departure for Muncie to appear before the commissioner. He came over the Lake Erie & Western, and was driven to his home in a cab. There was a large crowd on the court house lawn expecting to get sight of him. Senator Gifford telephoned to his son, his partner in business, the amount of the bond required, and the sum seemed surprisingly low to the people of Tipton, considering the alleged total of embezzlement and forgeries.

Word was sent to friends of Marker to assemble at the law office, and many were in attendance. Besides the bondsmen who were accepted, and who are worth twenty times the sum demanded, fifty others signed a statement that they would be willing to become surety, if necessary, and with this array of confidence Noah B. Marker rests. The bank matter and the strange return of Marker continue to be the engrossing topics of conversation. Many insist that he had never been away from home any distance; that he boarded the car where he left it and that the story of his trip to Missouri was fiction. They want the people here to get some sort of statement from the Missouri town where he is said to have been that he has really visited the place.

Inquiry was made at the bank by a number of farmers as to the time when the institution would resume business, and several depositors stated that they would like to have their money. They did not wish to buy merchandise to get it, but wanted the cash. No satisfactory reply could be obtained.

IN SERIOUS STRAITS

Starvation Faces People of 'Quake-Stricken Mexican Cities.

Mexico City, Aug. 2.—The recent series of earthquakes in the valley of Mexico and along the Pacific coast were the worst experienced in many years. It is now certain that the towns of Acapulco and Chilpancingo have been practically destroyed. What the earthquake of Friday failed to do was accomplished by the stronger one of Saturday, which either levelled or rendered uninhabitable every building in the two places. In addition to the ruin caused by the earthquake, Acapulco now faces a famine. All of the markets were destroyed in the shocks of Saturday, and the country people are afraid to bring more produce into the town. The people are camping in the public squares. The few buildings that remain standing are being leveled by dynamite, as they are little more than tottering walls that are constantly falling as new shocks come.

During the heavy shock Saturday the water in the harbor receded a distance of thirty-three feet and then rushed back, covering the docks and piers, causing considerable damage. The people are suffering not only from lack of food, but also from exposure. The tents in the public squares and streets do not serve to keep off the heavy rains which fall at this season of the year. Funds are being raised in Mexico City to relieve the distressed of Guerrero. In Mexico City the shock of Saturday was heavier than any yet experienced. As the work of examination goes on more evidence of damage is found, though so far as known no lives were lost in the last agitation.

Many tourists who were stopping at the local hotels are leaving for the United States.

Hanged Himself in Stable.
Franklin, Ind., Aug. 2.—When Will Mathes went to the Mathes stable he found his uncle, William Coleman, hanging from a rafter. Coleman, who had always made his home with his sister, Mrs. Mathes, had complained of feeling badly. Coleman was fifty years old and had never been married.

BIG WAR GAME

Boston Preparing to Repel Strong Armed Invasion.

Troops to Defend Boston.
Boston, Aug. 2.—Not since the days of the civil war has Massachusetts seen such a gathering of armed men as will participate in the "war game" of Aug. 14 to 21. The troops defending Boston and endeavoring to stem the invasion of 9,000 men of the New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and District of Columbia national guards, will consist of 7,000 members of the Massachusetts militia, augmented by three troops of regular cavalry from the "fighting Tenth," the colored regiment at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.

TRAGEDY AT CHURCH FOLLOWS DRINKING

After Shooting Lewis Sipes Calls For More Ice Cream.

Bloomington, Ind., Aug. 2.—At Mt. Ebal church, south of this city, late Saturday night, Lewis Sipes, a youth twenty years old shot and perhaps mortally wounded Clellan Nikirk, thirty-six years old, a farmer and saw-mill owner of Polk township, this county.

Nikirk is in the Bloomington hospital and his recovery is believed improbable. Sipes is in jail, showing little remorse.

The shooting followed a quarrel, and Sipes fired two shots from a .32-caliber revolver. After the shooting Sipes in a swaggering manner called for another dish of ice cream and ate this in an unconcerned manner. He was not molested, and went to his home to sleep, being awakened at daybreak by Sheriff Ratliff. Sipes admitted that he had assisted some other boys in drinking a quart of whisky, and declared that he was inflamed by the liquor when he did the shooting.

The shooting affray occurred at 11 o'clock at the country church, where an ice cream social was being held. Sipes went to the social with a revolver in his pocket and had disturbed the gathering upon two occasions by firing in the air, for which he was reprimanded by Nikirk. Sipes quieted down for a time, but as Nikirk, with his wife and three children, was about to climb into his vehicle to go home, Sipes walked around to where he was and again flourished his gun in the air.

Nikirk asked him to desist, but this only angered the youth, who remarked that it was his gun and he would do as he liked with it. Nikirk then started at Sipes to wrest the weapon from him when the latter shot Nikirk in the right jaw, breaking the jawbone. He fired again, the second bullet piercing Nikirk's lungs, causing a hemorrhage. Nikirk fell in the church yard with the blood streaming from him and with his wife and children screaming hysterically.

Sipes did not show any remorse whatever for his deed, but after felling his man called for more ice cream. Sipes then walked to his home, three miles away, and slept soundly until awakened by Sheriff Ratliff.

HAD A BAD RECORD

Murderer of Chinese Vice Consul at New York Deserted by Friends.

New York, Aug. 2.—The undersized Chinese cook, Wong Bow Cheung, as he has been identified, or Matuda Wong, as he insists on being named, who shot and killed his vice consul, Dr. Luk Wing, Saturday, was arraigned before the coroner Sunday and committed to the Tombs to await the result of the inquest to be next Wednesday. If he has friends, none called on him, and he has asked to see no one.

What scanty information the police can gather about him is wholly to his discredit.

Grief Leads to Suicide.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 2.—Mrs. John Jerndt, sixty years old, committed suicide by swallowing a quantity of paris green. Despondency following the recent death of her husband furnished the motive. At about the same hour Mrs. Lida Barnes of Kingsbury, this county, died at Lawton, Mich., after firing a bullet into her heart. Mrs. Barnes mourned the recent death of an only daughter, grief resulting in derangement.

Betting Must Be Oral.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 2.—The mid-summer meeting of the Saratoga Racing association began this afternoon. To enforce the anti-betting laws, Sheriff Bradley has sworn in a corps of special deputies. To remain within the law all betting will be oral, along the lines of procedure followed at the Metropolitan tracks.

Wreck Claims Twelve.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 2.—As the result of a head-on collision of two electric trains on the Coeur d'Alene and Spokane railroad at Coldwater, Idaho, twelve persons were killed and about seventy-five injured. Among the dead is Orville Puterbaugh of Elkhart, Ind.

M. Sommer's Good Flight.

Chalons-sur-Marne, Aug. 2.—M. Sommer Sunday made a flight of one hour, fifty minutes and thirty seconds in his bi-plane, beating the records of all of the French aviators.

Suggestions for the County Fair Exhibits

In speaking of preparing for fair exhibits, I. H. Butterfield, secretary of the Michigan State fair says: "I believe that farmers do not fully realize that agricultural fairs are established and conducted mainly for the benefit of the farmers, that is, for the promotion and improvement of agriculture."

Practically all the fairs, State, District or County are either under State patronage or are mutual organizations, chiefly the latter. The salaried officers are few and the members of the boards of management give much time and energy to the work of the fairs without pay. All the proceeds from these fairs beyond the cost of conducting are put into improvements or paid out in prizes. They are scarcely without exception economically and honestly conducted. Therefore I say that the managers of these fairs show much public spirit and patriotism in the work they are doing, and the farmer and artisan should meet them more than half way.

I am asked by The Farmer's Guide to suggest what the farmers might do toward making the fair a success. In the first place get into the spirit of feeling that it is the farmers' fair, your fair, and put aside the feeling that the officers are holding a fair to promote their own interests or for their own amusement or recreation.

The object of a fair is to exhibit the skill of the people in the production of better products and improved methods. Better stocks, better crops, better implements, better products of all kinds is the aim. Too much commercialism often enters into the matter of showing at fairs, particularly in live stock, and exhibitors sometimes "count" the dollars they have won rather than "recount" the triumph of skill and energy, in winning prizes. Dollars help pay expenses and the higher prizes always bring the most dollars but they should not be the main incentive for the exhibitor.

There is scarcely a farmer but has or thinks he has, some special skill in breeding some class of live stock or in growing some product of the farm. If he believes that the fair promotes public improvement it is his duty as well as his higher privilege to prepare something to exhibit, and to do this in a business like way. By this I mean that he should undertake to produce and grow something in live stock or in grains, vegetables or fruits with reference to showing it as the result of his skill and not merely select something that he may find he has grown that is superior quality and winning a prize. In doing the former with a deliberate purpose of producing something of superior merit a person will derive more personal benefit from the thought he gives and the training secured, than in winning the prize. If he is not a winner, he has been well paid for his trouble.

The success of a fair depends on the amount, variety and quality of the exhibits. No amount of attractions, vaudeville entertainments or anything of that sort which have become a part of most fairs will make a fair if the real features are eliminated, hence every farmer should contribute something to the exhibit, if it be but a single animal that has merit, a bushel of a valuable and prolific wheat, a single head of cabbage perfect of its kind makes a real exhibit that represents more than the thing itself. It represents the character of the farm and the work of the farmer. One who starts with the determination to produce a winning exhibit will in reality if not purposely do better farming in all lines.

Another suggestion: Let the "boy on the farm" have an opportunity to grow something to show at the fair and let him retain the prizes won. Of late the young people on the farm have in some localities engaged in corn growing contests with valuable results, and fair managers should offer prizes to young people.

It is better for the fair and for the farmer that one hundred exhibitors shall contribute to the exhibition even the same quantity of exhibits than that ten exhibitors shall do this.

Many a stock grower who has shown his stock at the fair and left without winning a prize, has yet been greatly benefited by showing for the opportunity he has had of comparing his stock with that of others and even if beaten in the show ring, if of the right spirit, a stimulus to excel has been created, which will lead him to improve and excel.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Rushville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hastens the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come and there is an ever-increasing tendency toward diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Rushville cures are the proof.

Mrs. Ulysses Beaver, 120 Fifth street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I feel that it is my duty to advise parents having children afflicted with kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. One of my children was troubled in this way and had but little control over the kidney secretions at night. Hearing of similar cases where Doan's Kidney Pills had effected cures I procured a supply of the remedy at F. P. Johnson & Co.'s drug store. It brought prompt relief and convinced me of its great merit."

EXPECT TO HEAR THE LOCUST SOON

The Monotonous Drone of the Cicada Will be in Evidence in a Few Days.

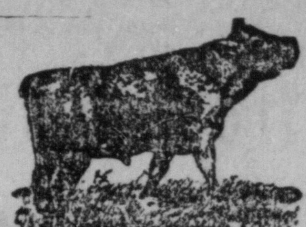

UNTIL LAST OF SEPTEMBER

From now on until the latter part of September you can expect to hear the monotonous drone of the cicada, or harvest locust, which is generally on the job for six weeks or more, to the maddening suspense of a good many people.

Whether the insects are of any value or not, they are about the greatest nerve disturbers in the neighborhood of the sick bed that could be well invented. They have not arrived as early as usual this year, but they are just as irritating as ever.

The kidney eliminate poisons by acting as filters for the blood. When they fail in this respect serious ailments must result. Pinules for the kidneys are what you should take at the first warning sign of kidney trouble. They assist the kidneys in expelling uric acid poison. Sold by Lytle's Drug Store.

Fine $350.00 Cote Piano!

In Your Home Without One Cent Expense Given Away by Mulno & Guffin

How it is Done

We have purchased a splendid Cote Piano like the illustration, manufactured by the Cote Piano Company of Fall River, Mass., and will give this piano to the person or society securing the greatest value in certificates given with purchases made at this store. These certificates range in denomination from 5 cents to $10.00, and are given to customers in amounts equal to the amount of their purchases. The piano will be given away December 29th, 1909, and will cost the one receiving it absolutely nothing. We do this in order to show the citizens of this community our appreciation of their trade, and to induce new customers to trade here. There will be absolutely no advance in prices, in fact, the prices on some lines will be lower than usual, because during this contest we will put on special sales of goods at reduced prices. We are going to make this contest interesting to everybody, and want all of our regular customers to bring their friends to the store. We want everybody to come in and examine the piano.

Of Interest to Everyone

All the people in this community should take an interest in this piano contest. The piano belongs to the public, and it is for the public to decide who shall receive it. It would be a splendid instrument for a school or Sunday school. It would be a proud and imposing addition to any lodge room. There also many young ladies who have musical ability, who are worthy of possessing this piano, but we do not wish to attempt to include all of the possible persons or societies to whom the piano could be given, because we want the matter to be decided by the public.

CUT THIS OUT. SEND IN TODAY.

NOMINATION COUPON

Mulno & Guffin:—I wish to nominate as a candidate in your Piano Contest, .....
I understand this is merely a nomination, not a vote, and does not obligate me in any way.
Name .....
Date ..... Address .....

Piano Guaranteed

The manufacturers guarantee this instrument for a long term of years. It is a large sized instrument, measuring 4 feet 9 inches in height, 5 feet 2 inches in length, and weighs, boxed ready for shipment, over 800 pounds. The finest materials and most experienced workmanship have produced in the Cote, an instrument excellent in tone, power and appearance. The case design is very beautiful. This piano is installed in thousands of the best homes, conservatories, educational and religious institutions in the land, and is well and favorably recommended by leading public men, women, and institutions, musicians, teachers and other excellent judges of musical instruments. Ask to see the portfolio containing these recommendations.

Nominate Someone

In order that everybody may have a chance to express his or her desire as to who should have the piano (regardless of whether or not they trade at our store), it is our desire that everybody make use of the nominating coupon to nominate the one of his or her choice and send it to the store as soon as possible. We will keep a list of these nominations, but, of course, unless certificates, (which are given only to those who pay cash for goods) are secured and voted, the nomination will not affect the final disposition of the piano, but will merely show your preference and give others the same opportunity.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

(Cambridge City Tribune.)

The summer meeting of the State Horticultural Society will be held at Centerville August 4 and 5. A large attendance from all parts of the State is expected, and some prominent horticulturists from this and other States will take part in the exercises. There will be three sessions on Wednesday and two Thursday, with well arranged programs. Liberal cash premiums for displays of all kinds of fruit, garden vegetables and flowers are offered. Centerville will maintain its well established reputation for hospitable entertainment of all its visitors.

SAME CONDITIONS HERE.

(Columbus Republican.)

If the committee which has been appointed to confer with the county council and the county commissioners relative to an appropriation to be used for beautifying the court house square is successful it is hoped one new rule will be made. And the new rule ought to be one that will stop the practice of making the court house yard a hobo hotel.

Several men who exist in this city and who have no visible means of support sleep in the court house yard day and night. Only this morning the yard contained four men, stretched out under trees, sleeping peacefully. These men, dirty and unkempt, did not add anything to the attractiveness of the yard and a good ducking from a garden hose would have helped considerably. The court house yard gates used to be locked to keep the never-works from sleeping in the yard, but such a howl was raised that they were opened again. Now some of these men seem to think the yard is their boarding place. It looks bad and ought to be stopped.

HEALTH BOARD EXAMINATION

All Those Who Wish to Become City or Town Officers Take Notice.

THEY MUST KNOW SOMETHING

Reasonable Familiarity of Health Statutes and Rules of Board is Necessary.

The Indiana State Board of Health announces that the first examination of those wishing to become eligible for appointments to the position of county health commissioner or city or town health officer, will be held in the State House at Indianapolis, on September 30th, 1909. Licensed physicians intending to enter the examination must make application upon official blanks and rules governing the examination may be secured from the State board. The board announces the examination will cover generally the fields of Hygienic and Sanitary Science, including food and drug inspection. A reasonable familiarity with the health statutes and the rules of the Board will be required and the subject of vital statistics, the foundation of public health work, will be gone into thoroughly.

All applicants for admission to examination, will be supplied with a pamphlet containing the health statutes and rules upon receipt of four cents in postage stamps. The edition of the pamphlet containing the statutes and rules is limited and cannot be generally distributed.

Application blanks and pamphlets of statutes and rules will be ready for distribution after August 10.

CHICKS SCARCE AS HEN'S TEETH

Springers Held Back by the Farmers and Prices Advance as a Result.

THE EGG "QUALITY" IS BAD

Potato Soup is the Only Answer to the Cuisine Problem at This Time.

"The scarcity of spring chickens is very apt to assume alarming proportions," said a well-known local groceryman this morning. "Never has there been such a big demand and short supply at this time of year. People everywhere are clamoring for young chickens to fry and it is impossible to supply their wants." No reason is assigned for such a scarcity. It is hinted that farmers have plenty of spring chickens but will not bring them to market as they are holding for higher prices. Chickens now retail at 22 cents a pound which is considerably higher than they sold for at this time last year.

Eggs also have increased perceptibly in price and are now selling for 25 cents a dozen, while last year the retail price of hen fruit was 20 cents a dozen. Perhaps the scarcity of chickens has something to do with the increased price of eggs. It is asserted by housewives of the city that the quality of the eggs is not the best either. Several declare that they have bought eggs, the majority of which were in the very last stages of decomposition and there seems to be a general complaint in this regard. One woman stated that out of a dozen eggs bought, five of them were so far gone that she is confident they would have hatched before night had they not been placed in the ice box.

However, there is some consolation in the fact that potatoes are cheaper this year than they have been for many years. They now sell at $1 per bushel, whereas last year at this time $1.25 a bushel was asked. But who wants to live on "potatoes."

BY THE WAYSIDE

They rushed, shoved, jammed, pushed, and pulled just like a herd of western cattle on the western plains, when on a rampage. But there is nothing which will excite the people like a cheap sale and make them ast as if they were fighting for their lives. This was the case last Saturday at the opening of the new Vigran five and ten cent store in West Second street. How the people did rush until it finally became necessary for the doorkeeper to let two out and then two in at one time. Everything in the store was selling for five and ten cents and they did carry away bargains. Seldom a man, woman or child could be seen on the streets who did not carry some token of the struggle.

Squire John Dearing of Walker township is lamenting grievously the loss of his old family horse which died last week. Since suffering a stroke of paralysis more than a year ago, Uncle John has spent much of his time driving from place to place, visiting relatives and friends. He is gradually growing feebler as the days go by so that the loss of his faithful and always reliable friend falls heavily upon him and he refuses to be comforted. Such attachments between man and dumb brutes may seem strange and really are so to many, nevertheless they are often quite as strong as purely human ties.

For a number of years Washington has been far away the largest lumber producing State in the Union, and it still is ahead; but last year Louisiana nearly caught up with it.

ON TO MADISON SAYS GEO. BALL

Traction Magnate Says I. & C. Will be Extended to the Ohio River.

NOT COMING FOR A WHILE

But Eventually Red Line Will Have Southern Outlet Through Fertile Territory.

Hon. Charles L. Henry, president and general manager of the I. & C. traction company came here Saturday in his private car, No. 302, dined at the DeArmond and returned to Indianapolis, says the Greensburg News. There were with him in the car his son, George, who is traffic manager; E. Moore, chief engineer; Will Frazee, claim agent; Oscar Lively, trainmaster; Claude Cambren and George A. Ball, directors, and two gentlemen representing eastern capitalists. The last two mentioned left here on the afternoon train for Cincinnati. They spent the day Friday on the Connersville branch and drove to Hamilton, Ohio, to where it is proposed to extend that branch of the road.

The writer had a talk with his friend, George Ball, on the Madison extension, and was assured by him that they had not abandoned the idea of the Madison line, but that the past two years had not been times for building. He says conditions are improving, money getting easier and within reach of investments and that the time is soon coming when the Greensburg-Madison line will be built.

Success of the Manilla Bank

The attention of our readers is called to the announcement of the Manilla bank, found elsewhere in this paper.

The Manilla bank is owned by Thomas K. Mull and Leonidas H. Mull, who are known to many of the people of Rush county, as successful farmers and business men.

The Manilla bank opened for business April 1, 1901, with Thomas K. Mull as president; Leonidas M. Mull as vice president, and H. O. Gross as cashier, which arrangement still continues. Mr. Gross is a member of the well know Gross family of Manilla.

Thomas K. Mull, the president has had a practical banking experience of many years. For several years before organizing the Manilla bank, he was an officer and employee of the Rushville National bank and has been for more than twenty-five years one of its directors.

The Manilla bank has been successful from the beginning which speaks well for the management and for the thrift and enterprise of the surrounding community.

SQUADRON ON TO CONNERSVILLE

Twelve Motor Car Loads Will go to Connersville to Advertise the Chautauqua.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB GOING

Tour of the Northeastern Part of the County Will be Made Tonight.

After making several attempts, the "Flying Squadron" will make the trip planned for the northeastern part of the county tonight. Already three automobiles have been promised, but the more the committee can obtain, the more gratified they will be.

A trip to Connersville is planned for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the Chautauqua will be advertised there. Word has been sent that the Flying Squadron will visit there. Several automobiles have been obtained and it is hoped that a large number will go. All machine owners are invited to join the party and take along friends to help swell the number. The committee hopes to take at least twelve machines tomorrow and suggests that any auto owner can make the trip for pleasure if he has not room to take along any of the advertising party in order to make the squadron larger. The bunch will meet and leave Wolcott's drug store at the appointed hour.

WHEN YOU GET LAZY DON'T LIE IN SHADE

It's Not Laziness That Makes You Weary, so go to a Physician.

"HOOK WORM" GETTING BUSY

When that lazy feeling comes upon you don't go and lie in the shade but hunt up a doctor and tell him you want treatment for "hookworm." That such a microbe exists is not a joke but a serious fact.

Dr. Stiles is absolute authority on the "hook worm," said Dr. Hurty, speaking of a marine hospital physician. "I sat in his laboratory some time ago and watched him make his experiments with the microbe. He had in his employ a young man who had been afflicted with the germ. The employee was compelled to go through daily work by his sheer force of will. The microbes had so worked on his system that his muscles and nerve centers were lifeless except when whipped into activity by the man's will. He was fast sinking into mental and physical exhaustion when Dr. Stiles discovered his condition and cleansed his system of the microbes. Then the young man began to mend physically and mentally at once.

"It will probably take a long time to convince the people that the average man who is able to work only by the sheer force of his will power is a victim of the hook worm, but we will teach them that just as we have been compelled to teach them everything else in hygiene and sanitation."

THAT'S GOING SOME.

Connersville Examiner: C. J. Murphy of Glenwood called at the Examiner office today and reported the best wheat yield so far recorded in the county. John Lindale lives on Mr. Murphy's place east of Glenwood and he had thirty-five acres of wheat that averaged 27 bushels and graded No. 2.

PLAN TO BUILD C. G. & R. REVIVED

Road Which Would Pass Through New Salem May Prove More Than Dream.

GREENSBURG TO BE THE HUB

Decatur County Men Confer With Directors and Urge That New Line be Constructed.

Time, time and again have we received reports and assurance of the final construction of the C. G. & R., the road which will pass through Rush county touching New Salem. The Greensburg News sends forth the latest dope which follows:

"W. J. Gemmill, cashier of the Clarksburg State bank, and Ed Fee, a wealthy resident of that vicinity, were in Indianapolis Saturday in consultation with the directors of the C. G. & R. traction company, with a view of encouraging if possible the building of the road.

"It will be recollected that C. M. Wilson, traction magnate, some years ago spent some time in this vicinity, promoting and selling stock in the proposed road. As outlined by him at the time the road would run between Columbus, Greensburg, and Richmond. This city would in some respects be the hub, the various lines of the company stretching out in several directions, similar to the spokes of a wheel. The company is now in such a condition that it is persistently said that there is a likelihood of the road being built, and that soon.

"The territory through which the right of way has been granted is an exceedingly rich one and if sufficient money has been raised to float the enterprise it would no doubt be one of the greatest paying investments in this section of the country.

"Messrs. Gemmill and Fee are exceedingly anxious that the line go through Clarksburg, as are also many enterprising citizens of that lively little town, for it means much to Clarksburg and the good people of that place are putting forth their best efforts to secure the road."

NUPTIALS HELD IN CINCINNATI

Former Young Woman of This City is Married.. Miss Ida Adams, Sister of Billy Adams.

TAKES THE MARRIAGE VOWS

The following wedding announcement of Miss Ida Adams of Indianapolis, from the Frankfort Times, will interest those who knew the Adams girls, sisters of Billy Adams, the printer, and daughters of Lewellyn Adams, the linament man, who used to live here in a house situated on the lot where Dr. F. G. Hackleman's residence now stands:

A midsummer wedding, characterized by simplicity was solemnized at ten-thirty o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bruns at Clifton, in Cincinnati, Ohio, when her sister, Miss Ida Mae Adams and J. Edward Krause, both of Indianapolis, were married. Only a few guests witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Krause left for an eastern trip through Pennsylvania, and will be at home after August the fifteenth at Alliance, a suburb of Indianapolis, where he has just built a beautiful country home. The bride is well known here where she has frequently visited her sister, Mrs. Joseph Gross. She is an accomplished young lady and well known in Indianapolis, where she has been employed as stenographer at Miller's coal office for several years. Mr. Krause is one of the best known hotel men in this part of the country. He is manager of the Hotel Edwards and the Morton hotel in Indianapolis. Mr. Krause is an excellent young man and has many friends in the city having often been here on business.

AMUSEMENTS

The Star-Grand tonight will present one of those famous Biograph picture's "The Cardinal's Conspiracy," proving that where a woman will, she will. Self-will is undeniably the dominant note in the nature of most women. With fixed determination they are as stubbornly redoubtable as the tide. The subject is, as you will perceive, along a high-class comedyline, beautifully acted, with setting seldom, if ever, equalled. Earl Robertson, Rushville's favorite singer, will sing "Lovey;" Miss Mary Cole, pianist.

The Palace offers an exceedingly fine program in two of the latest reproduction. They are pictures that appeal to all people and are great in dramatic action and photography. Blanche Wrennick will sing, "Sunday That's All."

At the Vaudet tonight a Biograph film, entitled "The Country Doctor" will be shown. Don Rogers, one of Indianapolis' best singers, will sing "The Sweetest Flower in Tennessee."

FORMER EDITOR HERE.

Robert M. Gibson, formerly editor of the Rushville Democrat, was here today the guest of friends. He is making good in the newspaper contest business and travels extensively over the country.

In old Holland, when a couple applied for divorce, they were locked up in a one-room, trying-out cabin, with one dish and one spoon. If, after a month, they had not come to limerick they got the writ which was seldom asked for after this bundling.

The population of Germany apart from immigration and emigration increased by 882,624 last year. In England, the births exceeded the deaths by 393,821; in Italy, by 357,178; in Belgium, by 71,715; in Holland, by 88,156; in France, by 46,411.

M'CUTCHEON

the same time she tightened her clutch upon his hand and crept closer to him, governed by an unconquerable craving.
Chase had the sensation of smothering.
He could not believe the senses which told him that she was responding to his appeal.

"Genevra!" he murmured, almost gasp, in his delirium. His arms went about her slender figure suddenly, and she was strained to his breast, locked to him with bonds that seemed unbreakable. Her face was lifted to his. The blackness of the passage was impenetrable, but love was the guide. He found her lips in one wild, glorious kiss.

A door creaked sharply. He released
her. Their quivering arms fell away.
They drew ever so slightly apart, still under the control of the influence which had held them for that brief moment. She was trembling violently.
A soft, wailing sigh as of pain came from her lips.

Then the glimmer of a light came to them through the half open door at the end of the passage. They gazed at it without comprehension, dumb in their sudden weakness. A shadowy figure came out through the door, and Selim's voice, low and tense, called to them.

"Forgive me," he murmured.
"It is too late," she replied. Then his hand sought hers again, and, dizzy with emotion, he led her up to the open door. As they passed into the huge, dimly lighted chamber he turned to look into her face. She met his gaze, and there were tears in her eyes.
Selim was ahead of them. She shook her head sadly, and he understood.

"Can we ever forget?" she murmured
plaintively.

"Never!" he whispered.

"We shall always regret—always regret!" she said, withdrawing her hand. "It was the beginning and the end."

"Not the end, dearest one—if we are always to regret," he interposed eagerly.
"But why the end? You do love me! I know it! And I worship you—oh, you don't know how I worship
you, Genevra! I!"

"Hush! We were fools! Don't please! I do not love you. I was carried away by— Oh, can't you understand? Remember what I am! You knew and yet you have degraded me in my own eyes. Is my own self respect nothing? You will laugh and you may boast after I am married to!"

"Genevra!" he protested as if in great pain.

"Excellency," came from the lips of Selim at the lower end of the chamber, breaking in sharply upon their little world, "there is no time to be lost."
Time to be lost! And he had held her in his arms! Time to be lost! All the rest of time was to be lost! "They may return at any moment."

Chase pulled himself together. He looked into her eyes for a moment, finding nothing there but a command to go. She stood straight and unyielding on the very spot which had seen her trembling with emotion but a moment before.

"Coming, Selim," he said, and moved away from her side as Neenah came toward them from the opposite wall.
Genevra did not move. She stood quite still and numb, watching his tall figure crossing the stone floor. Ah, what a man he was! The little Persian wife of Selim, after waiting for a full minute, gently touched the arm of the princess. Genevra started and looked down into the dark, accusing, smiling eyes. She flushed deeply and hated herself.

"Shall we go back?" she asked nervously. "I—I have seen enough. Come, Neenah. Lead me back to—"

"Most glorious excellency," said Ne-nah, shaking her pretty head, "we are to wait here. The sahib and Selim will join us soon."

"Where are they going?" demanded the princess, a feeling of awe coming over her. "I don't want to be left here alone." Chase and Selim had opened a low, heavy iron door at the lower end and were peering into the darkness beyond.

"Selim will explain. He has learned much. It is the secret passage to the coast. Be not afraid."

Genevra looked about her for the first time. They were standing in a long, low room, the walls of which reached with dampness and gave out a noxious odor. A single electric light provided a faint, almost unnatural light. Selim raised a lighted lantern as he led Chase through the squat door. Behind Genevra were enormous casks, a dozen or more, reaching almost to the ceiling. A number of boxes stood close by, while on the opposite side of the chamber four small iron chests were to be seen, dragged out from recesses in the distant corner. Observing her look of wonder, Neenah vouchsafed a casual explanation.

"It is the wine cellar and the storeroom. The iron chests contain the silver and gold plate that came from the great rajah of Murpat in exchange for the five huge rubies which now adorn his crown. The old sahibs stored the chests here many years ago, but few know of their existence. See!
They were hidden in the walls over there. Von Blitz has found them."

"Von Blitz!" in amazement.

"He has been here. He has carried away many chests. There were twenty in all."

"And—he will return for these?"

"Assuredly, most glorious one. Soon, perhaps. But be not afraid. Selim can close the passage door. He cannot get in. He will be fooled, eh? Why should you be afraid? Have you not with you the most wonderful, the most brave sahib? Would he not give his life for you?" The dark eyes sparkled with understanding—aye, even mischief. Genevra felt that this oriental witch knew everything. For a long time she looked in uncertain mood upon that smiling, wistful face. Then she said softly, moved by an irresistible impulse to confess something, even obscurely:

"Oh, if only I were such as you, Neenah, and could live forever on this
dear island!"

"But, most high, there are no princes here. There is no one to whom the most gracious one could be sold. No one who could pay more than a dozen rubies. Women are cheap here, and you would be a woman, not a most beautiful princess."

"I would not care to be a princess, perhaps."

"You love my Sahib Chase?" demanded Neenah abruptly, eagerly.

"Neenah!" gasped Genevra, with a startled look. Neenah looked intently into the unsteady, blue gray eyes and then bent over to kiss the hand of the princess. The latter laughed almost aloud in her confusion. She caught herself up quickly and said with some asperity: "You foolish child, I am to become a prince's wife. How can I love your sahib? What nonsense! I am to marry a prince, and he is not to pay for me in rubies."

"Ah, how wonderful!" cried Neenah, with ravishing candor. "A prince for a husband and the glorious Sahib that he knew she could never be his wife. He knew she was to wed an-

Ah, that silly Neenah! The reaction was as sudden as the revolt had been. Her smile grew warm and shy.
"Von Blitz has been here," he was saying half diffidently, still searching deep in her eyes. "He's played hob.
And he's likely to return at any min-

"Then let us go quickly. I have no desire to meet the objectionable Mr.
Von Blitz. Isn't it dreadfully dangerous here, Mr. Chase?"

"Mr. Chase?" he said, with his winning smile. "Now?"

"Yes, now and always Mr. Chase," she said steadily. "You know that it cannot be otherwise. I can't always be a fool."

His face turned a deep red; his lips parted for retort to this truculent estimate, but he controlled himself.

"Yes, it is dangerous here," he said quietly, answering her question. "As soon as Selim bars that door upon the inside we'll go. I was a fool to bring you here."

"How could you know what the dangers would be?" she asked.

"I'll confess I didn't expect Von Blitz," he said dryly.

"But you did expect"— she began,
with a start, biting her lips.

"There's a vast difference between expectation and hope, princess." Ne-nah had joined Selim at the door when the men re-entered the chamber. Now she was approaching with her husband.

"May Allah bless you and profit for himself, excellencies," said the good Selim. Neenah plainly had advanced her suspicions to the brown body servant. Genevra blushed, and then her eyes blazed. She gave the girl a

PARIS DOCTOR'S DISCOVERY.

Dandruff, Falling Hair are Caused by a Microbe—Dr. Sabourand Proves it.

Dr. Sabourand is the leading dermatologist of France.

To prove his theory that germs cause dandruff, he infected a guinea pig with these microbes and in a short time the hair from the animal's body disappeared.

And Parisian Sage, which can now be obtained in America has an immense sale and is highly recommended by physicians in all parts of the world.

It is just because it is the only prescription or hair tonic that is absolutely sure to kill the dandruff germ.

It is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

In warm weather it keeps the scalp clean and cool and free from obnoxious odors. Parisian Sage is a pleasant and dainty hair dressing that will put a bewitching charm and lustre into faded and lifeless hair in one week. It is distressing for any woman to have dull, unattractive hair and women so unfortunate should use Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage costs 50 cents a large bottle at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s and is sold by leading druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

The proper way and method of treating a cough or cold is to first of all gently move the bowels. This you can most conveniently do by taking a dose or two of Bees Laxative Cough Syrup. It is pleasant to take acts promptly. Children like it. Sold by Lytle's Drug Store.

TARIFF DEBATE TO BE LIMITED

Senate Expected to Act With Dispatch.

TO GET THROUGH THIS WEEK

Senator Aldrich is Reported to Be Determined That the Conference Report Shall Not Be Carried Over Into Next Week—Debate Will Not Be as Extended as It Once Threatened to Be—By a Vote of 195 to 183 the House Adopted the Conference Report.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The new tariff bill should be enacted into law and the extraordinary session of congress adjourning before the end of the present week, unless something happens to provoke heated discussions of a political character. Inquiry among senators opposed to the adoption of the conference report on the Payne-Aldrich bill indicates that the debate will not be as extended as it threatened to be before the conferees reported.

The senate met at 10 o'clock this morning and probably will meet at that hour each day and continue until 6 or 7 o'clock daily until the report is adopted. If it is found that more senators desire to speak than have already given notice it is possible that evening sessions may be held.

Senator Aldrich is determined that the conference report shall not be carried over into next week. He does not expect to occupy much time himself.
He said today that he would not speak longer than an hour or two and that other members of the committee would occupy comparatively little time. It is probable that senators who were opposed to the placing of hides on the free list will have something to say on that subject and that all of the Republicans who voted against the bill when it was on its passage in the senate will take occasion to explain their action. Some of these senators will vote for the adoption of the conference report and some of them are expected to vote in the negative.

Senator Culberson, leader of the minority, is authority for the statement that the Democrats will debate the conference report thoroughly, but will no filibuster against its adoption. Senators Daniel and Bailey, members of the committee on finance, will speak at length against the adoption of the conference report and take the lead in voicing Democratic opposition to the new tariff bill.

Some of the senate leaders predict that a vote will be had on the conference report as early as Thursday and that the special session of congress can be brought to a close on Friday.

HOUSE ACTION

Conference Report Adopted by a Vote of 195 to 183.

Washington, Aug. 2.—By a vote of 195 to 183 the house Saturday night adopted the conference report on the tariff bill. This action was followed

NO NEED TO LEAVE HOME

It is a serious matter, when the lungs are affected. A trip to and residence in Colorado or Arizona is not only tremendously expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited; but none can safely return to their homes.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in curing Bronchitis, Asthma, and more serious affections of the lungs. No leaving home and friends is necessary.

Frank, Seneca Co., Ohio.
Gentlemen: Your Alternative is an excellent medicine. I am now well again as I ever was to my knowledge and I beg to extend my heartfelt thanks for the medicine.

(Signed) Rev. Julius Heffner.
Eckman's Alternative is good for all throat and lung troubles, and is on sale

The Thaw Case Resumed.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Interest in the Harry Thaw habeas corpus proceedings, which were resumed today, will center on Justice Mills, who is to determine whether Thaw is sane and entitled to his liberty. The simple, direct questions of the justice which will help him and the public to form a correct conclusion will be the feature of the court proceedings this week.

The Canterbury Pilgrims.

Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 2.—Wednesday will be a big day here, where the spirit of rural pageantry of the early centuries will be revived in all its traditional glory. The first Gloucester settlement by the English Pilgrims was in 1623, and Wednesday will be "Gloucester day." A cast of 1,600 persons will produce the "Canterbury Pilgrims."

Boy Killed in Runaway.

Washington, Ind., Aug. 2.—Noah Banta, nineteen years old, son of Representative Charles A. Banta, is dead from injuries received in a runaway.
Banta was driving a hayrack, when the tongue of the machine dropped down, causing the team to take fright and run away, throwing him forward into the rake's fingers.

Aged Woman Caught at Crossing.

Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—While crossing the Big Four railway on New Jersey street, Mrs. Eliza P. Champs, seventy-two years old, living in the Virginia Flats, was run down and killed by a switch engine.

Fire Mysteries Cleared Up.

Lebanon, Ind., Aug. 2.—The police arrested Floyd Van Gorder, thirteen years old, on a charge of sending in a false fire alarm. The boy made a confession. The police subjected the boy to further questioning concerning many fires that occurred last summer and two years ago. The boy finally confessed to setting fire to a number of barns, buildings and residences, and implicated four other boys.

Taft to Visit Indianapolis.

Washington, Aug. 2.—President Taft's final decision with reference to a visit to Indianapolis this fall is that he will run up from Cincinnati some time during the latter half of November for a full day's stay during the conservation conference.

OSAKA SUFFERS AN IRREPARABLE LOSS

Japanese City Practically Destroyed By Fire.

Osaka, Japan, Aug. 2.—As a result of Saturday's disastrous fire, thousands of persons are homeless and hunger is staring many of them in the face. A system of relief has been organized by the municipal authorities, but it is inadequate to supply all needs. Outside cities and towns are generously sending in contributions to be used in alleviating the sufferings of the homeless and destitute. The number of casualties has not yet been determined, but hundreds of injured persons are crowding the hospitals.

The latest estimates are that 20,000 buildings were destroyed, these including banks, the stock exchange, the museum, government edifices and factories. While at present it is impossible accurately to state the losses, these are given roughly at several million yen. It is feared that some of the insurance companies will fail as a result of the heavy losses they will have to pay.

The conflagration lasted more than twenty-five hours, and today the burned section presents a deplorable sight. The streets of the city are very narrow and the houses were mostly of wood construction. Under a strong breeze, therefore, the buildings were easy prey for the flames which jumped from one to another with great rapidity. Once hope was almost abandoned that the conflagration could be arrested. The firemen fought valiantly against the odds of lack of water and high wind, and many of them fell unconscious while working bravely at their posts. Had not the water supply been curtailed by the existing drought it is believed the fire would have been quenched without great damage.

During the fire the greatest confusion prevailed among the spinning girls in the factory quarter, but fortunately no serious loss of life occurred there.

The belongings of the people who were able to save anything from their burning homes are piled in great heaps along the railroad tracks from Osaka to Kobe, where they were removed when the fire broke out.

An area of over four miles square, containing some of the city's handsomest structures, including the Buddhist temple, the largest in the world, was entirely burned over before the fire was brought under control. The stock exchange, which was one of the most important in this country, was destroyed. This loss, it is believed, will tend considerably to dislocate the business of Osaka, which, with its manufacturing concerns, is one of the chief commercial cities of Japan.

The emperor is deeply concerned over the disaster, and it is believed he will make a generous donation to the relief fund, and that his action will be quickly followed by gifts from charitable people and institutions.

STILL RAMPANT

At Least This Is the Tale
From the Frontier.

MADRID'S DIFFERENT STORY

Despite Official Announcements That Order Has Been Restored in Catalonia, the Word That Filters Across the Spanish Frontier Is of a Far Different Character — Refugees Report That Revolution Is Rife and That Desperate Fighting Continues.

Paris, Aug. 2.—Although official Spain minimizes the Catalanian insurrection and insists that the revolt has been crushed, a far different story emanates from the frontier. Refugees and travelers declare that the revolt is still rampant and that desperate combats continue at Barcelona, where fifty revolutionaries are reported to have been wounded in a conflict which occurred as late as Saturday night.

Cerbeke, Franco-Spanish frontier, Aug. 2.—The latest news received here from Barcelona is to the effect that fighting between the troops and the revolutionaries continues fiercely. It is reported that forty revolutionaries have been shot without trial at the Mont Juich fortress, among them being Emiliano Iglesias, editor of the Progreso, the organ of Deputy Leroux, chief of the Republicans in Barcelona.

MADRID HOPEFUL

Spanish Government Sends Out More Encouraging News.

Madrid, Aug. 2.—The government announces that despite the attitude of the populace of Catalonia and the desertions from the army in northern Spain, the response of the recruits and reservists to the call to the colors in other provinces, like Aragon and Andalusia, was unanimous. The minister of war has prohibited the departure from Spain of all persons subject to military duty under the penalty of being considered deserters. The government has also placed a ban on the sale of foreign papers containing accounts of recent events in Catalonia and Morocco. Despite the official announcement that order has been restored in Catalonia, renewed measures have been taken to prevent an outbreak elsewhere, especially in the Bilbao region, where the Socialists and advanced Republicans are organizing. The garrisons at Burgos, Vittoria and San Sebastian are being held in readiness to act quickly and energetically.

The Official View of It.

Paris, Aug. 2.—The Marquis del Muni, Spanish ambassador to France, declared that he had most reassuring news from Catalonia and Melilla. He insisted that only 200 men had been killed and 500 wounded in the fighting in Morocco and that the rebellion in Catalonia has been completely mastered. The ambassador said that neither the Carlists nor the Separatists were involved in the movement in Catalonia, as it was impossible to conceive that they would league themselves with anarchists to burn convents, assassinate monks and sack churches.

A Set of Small Republics.

London, Aug. 2.—"I traveled from Barcelona to Gerona afoot and on horseback and then by railway, thus traversing Catalonia, and found that it was a set of small autonomous but temporary republics," says the Daily Telegraph's Perpignan correspondent, telegraphing Sunday.

"At Mataro, for instance, I suffered a bad quarter of an hour of examination before the small revolutionary junta sitting in the labor exchange. I also found a horrible tale of slaughter, incendiarism and rapine from all quarters of the province."

Ambushed by Tribesmen.

Melilla, Morocco, Aug. 2.—A detachment of Spanish troops while marching to the outposts near here, were ambushed by warring tribesmen and several of the officers were wounded.

THE VACATION PLANS OF PRESIDENT TAFT

Will Leave For Beverly Upon Signing Tariff Bill.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Not until the tariff bill becomes a law will President Taft leave Washington, and no one predicts the passage of the bill through the senate prior to Thursday night at the earliest. After signing the bill the president will leave for Beverly, where he will have a stay of something more than five weeks before starting on his long trip through the west and south.

The senate having retained the appropriation of $25,000 in the urgent deficiency bill for the president's traveling expenses, only one obstacle remains as a possible bar to the trip. That is Mrs. Taft's health, and if she continues to improve as steadily as she has since taking up her residence at the summer cottage, the president's trip will be assured.

Helen Bauer, aged twenty, of Chicago, has accomplished the feat of climbing Mt. Blanc.

Our Daily Bread

is the real staff of life. It is wholesome, nutritious, appetizing. Serve it on your table and see how it will be relished and enjoyed. Many clever home bakers now use our bread instead of making their own. They have found that our baking is as good as theirs, and that they save both money and labor by buying here.

The Manilla Bank

Beginning August 1st, 1909, and continuing thereafter until further notice, The Manilla Bank, upon request, will issue to patrons and others with idle funds, Time Certificates of Deposit, running 6 and 12 months and bearing 3 per cent. interest from date to maturity.

The Manilla Bank conducts a general banking business and extends to customers every accommodation consistent with good banking.

Money loaned on real estate and personal security.

It is not the policy of this bank to charge interest in advance. Notes are taken for a specified time with interest from date, and borrowers are permitted to pay part or all at any time, interest being stopped at once on payments made.

For our patrons we collect checks on all other banks without charge.

We welcome all accounts both large and small, and solicit the business of all those who may find it convenient or profitable to make Manilla their banking point.
